PRAYER FOR PEACE IN THE WORLD

Lord Jesus Christ, Prince of Peace bestow upon us, the gift of peace throughout the world, so that all nations may work together and that there may be an end to war. I ask this, Lord, in your name. Amen.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Isaiah tells of the Lord's Servant, who will be inconspicuous, but will not rest until justice is established. The Lord then tells his servant that he was formed to be "a light for the nations."

Second Reading: Acts 10:34-38

Peter speaks to a group of pagans for the first time. He explains to them that any person who follows God's will is acceptable to God, regardless of nationality.

Gospel: Mark 1:7-11

John the Baptist had claimed one would come far more powerful than himself, one who would baptize with the Holy Spirit rather than water. When Jesus came to John and was baptized, the Spirit descended on him and a voice said, "You are my beloved Son. On you my favor rests."

VOCATION VIEW

No one is humanly worthy to be a priest, deacon, sister or brother. No one is worthy to stoop and untie the sandal straps of Jesus. But He still calls us and favors us to do His work. Will you serve? If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes".

BREAD AND WINE & SANCTUARY LIGHT

We are accepting offerings for the Sanctuary Light and Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. Any questions, please call the rectory 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Jennie & Thomas Laurino requested by the family of Dolores White.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of Dolores & Matthew White.

From the Pastor's Desk...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I have been searching for pamphlets and CDs to bring spiritual nourishment to our faith community. I find great CDs and books by Mathew Kelly, Scott Hahn and others. I found the following in one of the pamphlets of Our Sunday Visitor, "Five Ways to support My Parish Priest."

In the Footsteps of Jesus

There's an old story about Jesus meeting a man who was crying at the side of the road. When Jesus asked what was wrong, the man replied that he could not see. So Jesus cured him. After a while, Jesus met another man who was crying. "I cannot walk," the man explained. So Jesus cured him. Then, Jesus met a third man who was crying, "I am a priest," the man said. So Jesus sat down and wept with him.

Why would Jesus weep?

Pope Benedict XVI tells us that a priest "faces his Master's same fate." Like Jesus, a priest experiences the world's "incomprehension" of God, "indifference" toward God, and "rejection" of God.

But the Pope goes on to explain that a priest also "experiences Christ's joys." Priests are consecrated in Christ so they can speak and act in Jesus' name, celebrate sacraments, minister to those in need, and lead the faith community. Like Jesus, priests lay down their lives for those entrusted to them by the Father, following in the footsteps of the Lord.

Priests find security in a prayer relationship with God the Father.

Priests see their trials in relationship to the suffering of Jesus.

Priests allow Jesus to weep with them when they experience disappointments in themselves or in the people to whom they minister.

Priests know that the Holy Spirit will energize them, inspire them, and instill in them the joy that comes through serving God's people.

Pope John Pal II in his Holy Thursday letter to the Priests wrote in 1990, "The priesthood is not an institution that exists alongside the laity or above it. The priesthood of bishops and priests, as well as the ministry of deacons, is for the laity, and precisely for this reason it possesses a ministerial character, that is to say, one of service."

Only God can fully sustain a priest in his vocation, but members of the lay faithful can also provide everyday support and encouragement. Next week we will continue with some of the ways the laity can provide this support.

God Bless
Fr. Pancrose

MARCH FOR LIFE

42nd Anniversary of

Roe v. Wade Decision
