SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19

This powerful story describes Samuel, who at the time was the servant of the high priest. The Lord called out to Samuel, who twice thought Eli had called him. They gradually realized that it was the Lord who called for him. So the third time Samuel answered and the Lord remained with Samuel as he grew.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Paul explains to the Corinthians that their body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. He tells them to avoid lewd conduct, and glorify God by keeping their bodies pure.

Gospel: John 1:35-42

John told two of his disciples that Jesus is the Lamb of God. They turned and followed him, immediately curious and attracted to him. Andrew told his brother Simon about Jesus. Simon also came to meet Jesus, who renamed him Cephas, or Peter.

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 18, 2015

VOCATION VIEW

A good Vocation Prayer to say every day, from the time we are ten years old till we are ninety years old, is found in today's First Scripture Reading: "Speak, Lord for your servant is listening." Just try it with sincerity starting today. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes".

BREAD AND WINE & SANCTUARY LIGHT

We are accepting offerings for the Sanctuary Light and Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. Any questions, please call the rectory 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated for the Special Intentions of the family of Dolores White.

Fine Ways to Support My Parish Priest ...

1. Pray for your Priest.

Encourage others to do the same. You might consider designating a daily chore or activity as a sacrificial offering for your priest. Or you might say a particular prayer every day for him.

Let your priest know that you are praying for him. He will appreciate your spiritual support. During difficult moments, he will know that your prayers are helping to sustain him.

2. Participate and be Active

The best thing you can do for your priest is to come to Mass every weekend and get involved in your parish. Use your gifts and talents to help the parish grow. Volunteer to help with whatever needs to be done. Attend parish events and support your parish financially

By all means, if God has touched you or your family in some way because of something your priest has said or done, let him know what happened. When priests see how God is working through them, it reaffirms their calling and goes a long way toward encouraging them!

Keep your priest informed if you hear about parishioner who is sick, injured, or going through some difficulty in life. Priests are often the last to hear about these things, and they can't be everywhere at once. This will help your priest be where he needs to be to care for his parishioners most effectively.

Above all, keep your relationship with Jesus your top priority. Priests will come and go in your parish, and they will touch your life in many ways, but your faith must always be grounded in the Lord.

3. Watch Your Expectations

Sometimes, people have unrealistic expectations of what a priest "should be" or "should do." They want Father to be present at every parish function, every community event, and every time someone has a question, or concern, or special need.

It's important to remember that priests are people, too, with the same normal human limits. Just as you need a day or two off every week, so does your priest. In fact, studies have shown that time off is important for priests, to help them maintain both their spiritual focus and their energy levels. One priest recognized that after concerned parishioners insisted that he take a day off each week, he was actually able to accomplish more. We can all forget to take care of ourselves now and then: it doesn't hurt to remind your priest to do so.

Accept your priest for the unique person he is. Priests come in all shapes, sizes, ages, and personality styles: introverts and extroverts; mild mannered and quick-tempered; serious and witty. Each priest has his own preferences and peculiarities as well, so let him be himself, with his own gifts and talents. Each priest will minister in his own way. Trust God to work through your priest to meet the needs of the parish, and let him know that you support him. If you have the ability to make your priest laugh-do it! A good laugh goes a long way toward relieving any stress he may be feeling.
