DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA IN ROME

First Reading: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12

This reading from the Prophet Ezekiel tells of the streaming, healing waters that flow from the temple. These waters restore life to the river's inhabitants as well as the fruit bearing trees along its banks. It is believed that the water signifies blessings, whereas the lack of signifies trouble, hardship.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17

Paul compares us to a building whose foundation has been laid by Jesus. As the people of God, we can only be solid if we are grounded in Christ.

Gospel: John 2:13-22

Near the time of Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem and saw the temple had become a marketplace. He became angry and proceeded to drive out the vendors and livestock. Jesus spoke of destroying the temple and rebuilding it in three days. The Jews did not know Jesus was speaking of his body, but when his resurrection from the dead came to pass, his disciples remembered what Jesus had said and came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

From Cardinal Dolan...

Dear Friends in Lord,

As you know, the Catholic family of the Archdiocese of New York has for the last five years been engaged in an extensive pastoral planning process, Making All Things New. This process intensified over the past fourteen months, as we asked even more specifically for the input of our Catholic faithful, through parish clusters, for their assistance in helping plan for our future. Thanks to all of you who were part of it.

We listened to your thoughts, concerns, and suggestions; we evaluated all the material and input presented by our parish clusters; and we sought the recommendations of others as well, such as an advisory board comprised of clergy, religious women and men, and members of the faithful from the nineteen vicariates (deaneries) of the archdiocese; our archdiocesan pastoral council; the college of consultors; our auxiliary bishops; key staff members; and the priests' council.

Today (Nov 2, 2014) we have announced the decisions on parish mergers that I have made based on the recommendations that have been presented to me.

As parishioners of the Archdiocese of New York, I want you personally to know what is going on and to be the first to know when I have an important announcement like the one today. I will use this communication channel (Flocknote) on a limited basis when I feel there is something you should hear straight from me. This will also help your pastor reach you more effectively when he needs to. You can, of course, opt out of these at any time.

If you would like to read the full press release that we will be issuing to the media today, you can do so. It is available in both English and Spanish, and has a list of the parishes that are involved.

The goal of Making All Things New was simple: to ensure that all of our parishes are active, vibrant communities of faith. With your continued help, I know that we will be successful in our efforts.

With prayerful best wishes for a blessed fall,
Thanksgiving, and Advent, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

PRAYER FOR THOSE WHO SERVE IN THE ARMED FORCES

Lord Jesus, Savior of the World and King of Peace, watch over our sons and daughters in the service of their country. Protect them from the physical and moral dangers of military life. Keep them close to You and help them live in such a manner that is pleasing to You. Lord Jesus, give them courage to serve their country with honor and dignity. Be with them when they are in danger, strengthen them when they face hardships. Above all Lord, grant that when their service is finished, they may return to us sound in mind, body and soul. And Lord, for those who give the ultimate sacrifice with their lives for serving their country, please, touch and minister grace and healing to their families. Amen.
