THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Jonah set out for Nineveh as God asked and told the people that their city would be destroyed in forty days. The people believed him and repented from their evil ways. God did not destroy their city, showing his mercy for those who see the evil of their ways and correct it.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Paul advises the Corinthians that their world is changing, so they should not take their daily trials too seriously. We should remember that the problems of everyday living will not last forever, but the eternal life God promises us will.

Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Jesus observes Simon and Andrew where they are fishing and tells them to come with him and become “fishers of men.” They abandon their nets without hesitation to follow him. Next he calls James and his brother John, who also leave what they are doing and follow him without question.

VOCATION VIEW

Even a great person like Jonah turned away, at first, from what God called him to do. It is never too late to hear the Lord say, “Come, follow me.” How old are you now? If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM “The World Needs Heroes”.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of John P. O'Donnell requested by Barbara O'Donnell.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of Dolores & Matthew White requested by their family.

*Fine Ways to Support
My Parish Priest ...

4. Be Prepared to believe in the Best.

A lot of what you hear on the parish grapevine is either untrue or is, at best, greatly exaggerated. Most people really want their priest to succeed in his ministry. But a few negative people can do a lot of damage-not just to the priest but to the entire parish.

Sometimes, negativity stems from misunderstandings. Often, people will make assumptions about something they hear a priest say, or see him do, that have no basis in reality. Keep in mind that Father might not be able to fully explain something he may have done because he is bound by confidentiality. Or he might appear to be distracted or distant, when he's actually worried about something in the parish or exhausted after being up all night with a dying parishioner. Until you have all the facts, it's best to give him the benefit of the doubt.

This applies doubly to how you talk about your priest, especially in front of your children. Gently confront parishioners who spread rumors, and make it clear that criticizing a priest behind his back never solves a problem. If there is a legitimate complaint, offer to go with them to talk with the priest.

When difficulties arise, do your priest the courtesy of making an appointment so you can talk about it with him in person, one on one. (It's never wise to try to engage a priest in a serious discussion in the vestibule after Mass or in a place where other people are listening.) Be honest in conveying your feelings, but also be respectful. Pray that the Lord will guide you. If you can't come to some resolution, you may need a mediator or a higher authority. In some cases, you may reach a point where you simply agree to disagree.

A Prayer for Priests

Gracious and Loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace. We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

FROM THE SETON FOUNDATION FOR LEARNING

Dear Fr. Kalist:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, the Parent Guild and most especially the children of the Seton Foundation, I would like to express our gratitude for allowing us to conduct our annual Christmas Raffle at your parish.

This raffle is the major fund raising activity each year, and it enables us to raise approximately 10% of our annual operating budget for Mother Franciska Elementary School and Bishop Patrick V. Ahern High School. This year the raffle raised almost $100,000 of which your parishioners contributed $4,355.

The winner of the raffle this year was Toni Seaman, who purchased her ticket at Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish. The prayers and support we receive from you and your parishioners are a great blessing for us. We are very grateful for the generosity of our loyal friends. Once again, thank you for your continued support of our programs for God's special children.

Mary D. Hughes
Executive Director
