TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

Wicked people discuss their anger at the just one, because they do not like being reproached for their evil ways. They want to see if he is the Son of God, so they decide to torture him and see if God will come to defend him. They decide to condemn him to a shameful death and see if the claims are true that God will take care of him.

Second Reading: James 3:16—4:3

James discusses the importance of avoiding jealousy and strife. People should strive for peace and justice instead of concentrating on material pleasures which can tempt people to sin to obtain whatever they desire.

Gospel: Mark 9:30-37

Jesus again attempts to prepare his disciples for his death and resurrection, although they do not yet fully understand. They had been arguing over who was the most important one, but Jesus tells them whoever wants to rank first must be willing to remain a servant to all. He also tells them that anyone who welcomes a child in his name welcomes both him and God.

VOCATION VIEW

Sociologists report that only 10% of people are interested in serving others consistently. So when Jesus says, "If you wish to rank first, you must remain the last one of all and the servant of all." Many people could immediately turn and walk away. Are you willing to serve as Jesus did? If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

From the Pastor's Desk...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

My second term as Pastor of our parish has begun already with the July 14th appointment letter from the Cardinal even though the installation is on this weekend. Last time after the installation I was only praying to God to help straighten up the school which needed half a million yearly to cover its deficit. But God was so good to us that we received so many blessings from him. We not only straightened up the school finances but also took up so many renovations and built up a vibrant faith community. All of us must be grateful to God and feel proud of our accomplishments in such a short time. We ran a major campaign and successfully completed the following projects:

Church:

New Handicap Access Ramp
New Sound system
Stained Glass Window Renovation project
Church Renovation
Chapel Renovation

School

Roof over the 3rd street wing & Cafeteria
Side walk along Cloister Place
New Sound system
School Parking Lot

Rectory:

New fence and sidewalk
New Boiler
Rectory Meeting Hall Renovation,
Rectory Basement Renovation

Convent

New parapet wall & New Roof
Replacing the lintels and waterproofing the Building
First floor renovation for Kindergarten classrooms
Fr. Hopkins Hall Renovation

As we thank God for all these accomplishments we raise our hearts in prayer for God's continued help to make our families stronger in faith and participate fully in the life of the Church. We also pray that God will help us to complete the renovation of the two floors in the convent and put them into good use. Thank you for your love and cooperation.

God Bless You,
Fr. Pancrose

Catechetical Sunday, September 20th

A PRAYER FOR CATECHISTS

O God, our Heavenly Father, you have given us the gift of these catechists to be heralds of the Gospel to our parish family.

We lift them up to you in thanksgiving and intercede for them concerning their hope and needs.

May we be attentive to the presence of your Word in them, a Word that lifts up and affirms, calls forth and challenges, is compassionate and consoles.

We pray that our parish family will always be blessed with those who have responded to the call to share in Christ's prophetic mission as catechists. May we too be open to the universal call to service that Christ addresses to all of his disciples, contributing our gifts to the communion of faith, the Church.

We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen.
