ROSARY ALTAR SOCIETY CARE COMMITTEE

On duty the week of August 21 to August 27 – Joe

The Cenacle of Life Prayer Group meets every Friday at 4:00PM in the Chapel to recite the Rosary.

Come and Join Us
FOR OUTDOOR ROSARY

The Legion of Mary will continue the monthly outdoor rosary on the fourth Friday of each month through September, at 7pm in the Blessed Mother Prayer Garden. The dates are as follows: August 26th and September 23rd. All are welcome. In case of inclement weather, the rosary will be indoors.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Isaiah portrays a time when people from many nations will gather in Jerusalem and proclaim God's glory. God's messengers will teach many nations about God. Just as the Israelites bring offerings, these messengers will bring people from all nations to worship.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

The Hebrews are told that God disciplines those he loves. When a parent disciplines a child, the child usually learns what is expected of him. The Hebrews are encouraged to face life's trials as a form of discipline, and attempt to learn something from them.

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

Jesus warns that the door to God's kingdom will be locked for those who ignored his wishes. Many people will come from all nations and take their place in God's kingdom. Others will not be recognized by God, and he will reject them.

VOCATION VIEW

Whom the Lord loves, He disciplines. The best way to lead others through the narrow gate is to be formed and disciplined as a leader. Then you can go through the narrow gate, yourself. If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priesthood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914) 968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes".

BREAD AND WINE & SANCTUARY LIGHT

We are accepting offerings for the Sanctuary Light and Bread and Wine for the week. Any questions, please call the rectory 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of John Tasso requested by Marion Tasso.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of John Tasso requested by Marion Tasso.

From Cardinal's Blog...

Thanks for the Dreams!

Thank you, Young People of Krakow!

I'm home after nearly three weeks in India and Poland, physically tired but emotionally and spiritually exhilarated. World Youth Days -- and these were my seventh -- do that to me. You don't hear or see too much about them in the media -- except when the Pope trips while incensing the altar -- but these days are news indeed: over a million young people, from every continent, last week in Krakow, who accepted the invitation of Pope Francis to come together in faith, prayer, joy, study, the sacraments, and mutual encouragement.

The cobbled streets of Krakow were packed with them, singing, embracing, laughing. There they were, walking miles to the sites of the events; standing in line as hundreds of priests in every language heard confessions; on their knees in Eucharistic adoration; listening attentively to other young people witness to their faith; and, of course, straining to see the Holy Father.

There they were, always on the move, -- unless they collapsed for a while in the shade -- making new friends, or reuniting with ones from past World Youth Days.

For three mornings, I had the privilege of leading a four hour catechetical session at different locales -- one of them about an hour outside of Krakow. There I met youth from all over the world as we sang, heard testimonies, celebrated the sacrament of penance, pondered the lesson selected by Pope Francis from the Bible for the given day, and prayed at Mass.

We had almost 200 young people from the archdiocese, led by our director of Youth Ministry Ela Milewska, and accompanied by generous adult leaders and priests -- Fathers Joe Espallat, George Sears, Adaly Rosado, Freddy Washington, Jim Cruz, Benjamin Palacios, James Ferreira, Dominican Fathers, -- and two bishops -- Peter Byrne and yours truly! I was so proud of them, our Sisters of Life, Franciscans Sisters of the Renewal, and other religious women and men.

When Pope Saint John Paul II -- whom Pope Francis has named patron of World Youth Days -- began the event, many scoffed. "Hasn't he gotten the memo?" they asked. "Young people are turned off by religion! They find it repressive, stale and useless . . . These so-called 'Youth Days' are doomed!" Saint John Paul ignored the doom and took the dare. He had been accompanying young people since he was a young parish priest as Saint Florian's in Krakow, (by the way, a highlight for me was to spend an evening with these "youth" of Father Wojtyla, whom they still lovingly call "uncle", now all in their mid-seventies), and saw their souls, not the press releases. He knew they were intrigued by God, Jesus, truth, meaning, and purpose.

Young people of Krakow: it was a lot of work, walking, waiting, sweating, and time! Take it from this "old man": it was all worth it, because you are worth it! Thanks for the memories! Thanks for the dreams!

FROM PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

Dear Father Kalist,

Thank you very much for your hospitality to a member of the Dominican Fathers on the weekend of 7/17/16 when he visited Our Lady Queen of Peace Church and made an appeal on behalf of The Society as part of Mission Cooperative "2016".

Thank you also for the check in the amount of $3,116.00, representing the sacrifices of your good people in response to the appeal. Please convey to them our deep appreciation and assure them of a place in the prayers and good works of the missionaries throughout the world.

With every personal and prayerful best wish, I am

Sincerely,
Angela Torres
Mission Coordinator

RELIGIOUS ED. NEWS

Parish Religious Education Program

Parish Confirmation Candidates:

Parish Service Opportunity

September Family Mass, Sunday, Sept. 18th at 11:30am
We need 4 volunteers to be greeters/ministers of hospitality for the September Family Mass. You will be greeting the parishioners as they come into Mass and giving them handouts for the day. You need to arrive 15 minutes before Mass begins. Meet Mrs. Orleman at the back of the Church. If you are interested, call Mrs. Orleman at 718-979-0989 and leave a message. The first 4 callers will be the greeters.

Parish/Community Service

Mount Loretto's (Saint Edward) Food Pantry needs non-perishable food items (canned goods, rice, coffee, tea, bags of beans, peanut butter, jelly (in plastic jars), toothpaste, soap, shampoo, etc.

Discuss with your parents and organize a food drive with your family and friends. Let your parents guide you to collect items that have not expired. Bring your donations to the parking lot door of Fr. Hopkins Hall on Sunday, September 4th. Someone will be there to accept your donations before all of the Masses. The person who is there will sign your service sheet (Parish or Community). Be realistic in calculating the amount of time it took you to organize and gather donations to bring to Church. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Barbara Orleman at 718-979-0989.

"Two-Second" Prayers

Not my will but yours be done. (Luke 22:42)

Have mercy on us, Son of David. (Matthew 9:27)

Lord, you have the words of eternal life. (John 6:68)

Truly you are the Son of God. (Matthew 14:33)

Lord, help me. (Matthew 15:25)

My Lord and my God. (John 20:28)

I believe; help my unbelief! (Mark 9:24)

Lord, you know that I love you. (John 21:15)

Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word. (Luke 1:38)

My soul magnifies the Lord. (Luke 1:46)

Lord, teach us to pray. (Luke 11:1)

Come, Lord Jesus! (Revelation 22:20)

FREE VOLUNTEER TRAINING PROGRAM

Are you a good listener? Caring?

University Hospice is a non-profit organization that provides quality, compassionate care at the end of life. This care involves a team of professionals and volunteers who address emotional, social and spiritual needs of the patients and their families. University Hospice is recruiting those interested in becoming a hospice volunteer. Volunteers are needed in various areas such as: visiting patients in their homes, nursing facilities, the Addeo Hospice Residence, or in the hospital. Volunteers are also an essential part in our office and with our special projects. If interested, please call 718-226-6458
