God asks little, but He gives much.

- St. John Chrysostom (347-407)

TWENTY- FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:6-9

Isaiah expresses an urgent plea that all should seek the Lord and turn to him for mercy.

Second Reading: Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

In a strongly personal message from Paul while in prison, he says that he wishes "to be freed from this life and to be with Christ," but he realizes that he still has much important work to do.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus tells the parable of the owner of an estate who hires workmen for his vineyard. When, at the end of the day, he pays a full day's wage to those who worked only one hour, those who worked all day complained bitterly. But the owner says, "I am free to do as I please, am I not?" Jesus reminds us through this parable that "the last shall be first and the first shall be last."

Prayer To ST. Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray. And you, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God banish into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Cardinal Dolan begins his introduction to the training with these words, "Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith. As Catholics, we believe that Jesus Christ is truly present, body, blood, soul and divinity in the most Holy Eucharist. What a splendid gift! As an extraordinary minister of the Holy Communion you have this sacred task to bring this gift to God's people. Sometimes, it may be at Sunday Mass, other times it may be when you bring Holy Communion to the sick and homebound of the parish. Remember, each time you perform this ministry you bring Jesus into the lives of other people in a very real and tangible way." I thought it beautifully explains your ministry and our faith in the Eucharist. Thank you for your ministry to the parish. If any questions please speak with me regarding the Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion in the parish.

God Bless You
Fr. Pancrose
