SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 1:1-11

Jesus had appeared many times to His disciples after His resurrection. On this final occasion, Jesus' departing message is that they will soon receive the Holy Spirit to strengthen them in their work. No sooner does He say this, he is taken up to heaven before their eyes.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:17-23

Paul prays that God may grant wisdom and enlightenment to the Ephesians so that they may know the great hope to which they are called. Every power has been given to Christ who now reigns in heaven. He is the "head of the church, which is His body."

Gospel: Mark 16:15-20

Jesus told His disciples to go and spread the gospel to every creature, to the world. Jesus also spoke of the signs that will accompany those who believe in Christ. After He spoke with them, He was taken into heaven and took His seat the right hand of God.

7th Sunday of Easter

May 13, 2018

Jesus said to Himself: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Good News to all Creation." There are still dark corners of our world and of our neighborhood that need the Good News. What are you doing the rest of your life? If you would like to be a priest or have questions about the priest-hood, please contact the Vocation Office at (914)
968-1340 or www.NYPRIEST.COM "The World Needs Heroes"

BREAD AND WINE & SANCTUARY LIGHT

We are accepting offerings for the Sanctuary Light and Bread and Wine for the week in memory of your loved ones. Any questions, please call the rectory 718-351-1093.

The Bread and Wine for this week are donated in loving memory of Doris Flannery requested by Jean Cicero.

The Sanctuary Light for this week burns in loving memory of Doris Flannery requested by Patti Flannery.

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING

Our Parish Council will meet on Tuesday, May 16th at 7pm in Fr. Hopkins Hall. All members are requested to attend.

From the Pastor's desk ...

My Dear Brothers and Sisters

As a parish family there is nothing more joyful than celebrating the sacraments, especially the Sacraments of Christian Initiation. We call the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist as sacraments of initiation because they lay the foundations of every Christian life. Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "The sharing in the divine nature given to men through the grace of Christ bears a certain likeness to the origin, development, and nourishing of natural life. The faithful are born anew by Baptism, strengthened by the sacrament of Confirmation, and receive in the Eucharist the food of eternal life. By means of these sacraments of Christian initiation, they thus receive in increasing measure the treasures of the divine life and advance toward the perfection of charity." This is the reason why the Church canon law demands that any catholic who wishes to act as a sponsor must have received the Sacraments of Initiation. This weekend we join our 63 first communion children and their families in their joy of receiving the Body of Christ for the first time. Congratulations!

Today we celebrate Mother's Day and I wish Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers in our parish! "We remember all mothers with gratitude and affection," Pope Francis said to the crowds gathered in Saint Peter's Square under the hot sun for the recitation of the Regina Caeli prayer on May 10. I found this reflection on line which I liked for Mother's Day on the website "Catholic online."

"For those whose mothers and grandmothers are still alive - cherish them today. Hug and kiss them. Honor them. Thank them. For those whose mothers have gone home to the Lord, remember them. For all who bear the name Christian, the name of our eternal family, let us also honor the Mother of the Lord today. Her maternal care for Jesus still embraces all those who are joined to Him, as members of His Body, by that great new birth of Baptism. Finally, let us ask the Lord to open our eyes, and our hearts, to come to more fully understand the great mystery and gift of the Church as our Mother. Let us live our lives as Christians, by living in the heart of Mother Church, for the sake of the world into which we are sent to bear the Good News."

Hugs, Kisses and Blessings to all Mothers

Congratulations to our parish 2nd graders who received First Holy Communion. Please keep them in your prayers.

HAPPY MOTHERS' DAY

Prayer for Mothers

Loving Father, help all mothers to follow the example of Mary in doing Your will. Aid them in seeing human life as a precious gift from You and a manifestation of Your will. Give them a generous spirit to be willing to sacrifice for the sake of their offspring. Fill their hearts with joy as they watch their children grow, and give them strength and consolation when they see them suffer. Help mothers to be examples of faith, hope, and charity, so their children will grow to Christian maturity. Help them know that their children are Yours. Amen.

May Devotions to Mary

May Devotions to the Blessed Virgin Mary refers to special Marian devotions held in the Catholic Church during the month of May honoring the Virgin Mary as "the Queen of May". These services may take place inside or outside. A "May Crowning" is a traditional Roman Catholic ritual that occurs in the month of May.

Questions for thought:

- Do we honor Mary our mother by living holy lives?
- Do we turn to Mary in our needs?
- Do we keep our rosary beads with us always to pray?
- Do we pray the rosary every day?
